

Department of Nursing

Evidenced Based Practice Committee - SNL

Presents a lecture on:

“What you think is not what they get:
significant discrepancies between prescribed & administered doses of tube feedings.”

- Identify implications of inadequate nutritional intake in the hospitalized patient
- Discuss causes of discrepancy between prescribed and administered tube feedings
- Formulate plans to address problem of inadequate nutrition in the hospitalized patient

Date: January 18, 2012 from 7:30am to 8:30am

Speaker: Francis Heck, RN, MSN

Location: Thomas Jefferson University, Jefferson Alumni Hall,
1020 Locust Street, Room 407, Philadelphia, PA 19107

Alternatively, participants can attend virtually following live session until February 19th.
See the link below to view the article and online presentation.

Article located in Pulse Blackboard at http://jeffline.jefferson.edu/pulse/tjuh_journal_club/

Reference Article: What you think is not what they get: significant discrepancies between prescribed and administered doses of tube feeding. British Journal of Nutrition. 101(1):68-71, 2009 Jan.

Target Audience: Professional Nurses;
1.0 contact hour will be awarded to participant (live or virtual session).
Session is recorded and starts promptly at 7:30 a.m.; participant must be present for full presentation to earn CE credit.

Fees: Free to Jefferson Nurses (Methodist and Main campus).

Registration: Jefferson and outside participants must register online at the website: http://jeffline.jefferson.edu/Education/programs/tjuh_cne/

Continuing Education Credit

Thomas Jefferson University Hospital is an approved provider of Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) by the PA State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Maximum 1.0 contact hours will be awarded to participants

Disclosure Statement

All faculty at nursing education activities are required to disclose to the audience (1) any significant financial relationships with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial products, goods or services and (2) any unlabeled/unapproved uses of drugs or devices discussed in their presentations. Such disclosures will be made in writing in the course presentation materials.